- B button: cancel, open/close diary/notebook screen.
- D-pad: cursor/pointer movement, turn the pages (item, location...) in the notebook diary

(*) For the charm controls, look through pages 9 to 14.

(*) Operation manual, super gameboy commons.

Starting the Game

After you have inserted the game pak properly in the console, turn the console's power on, the display screen and the start screen will appear.

> Start (game)

Insert your birth date (day and month). Right after, you have a personality test that will change your story a bit according to your answers. Come on! press A and start the game.

> Continue (game)

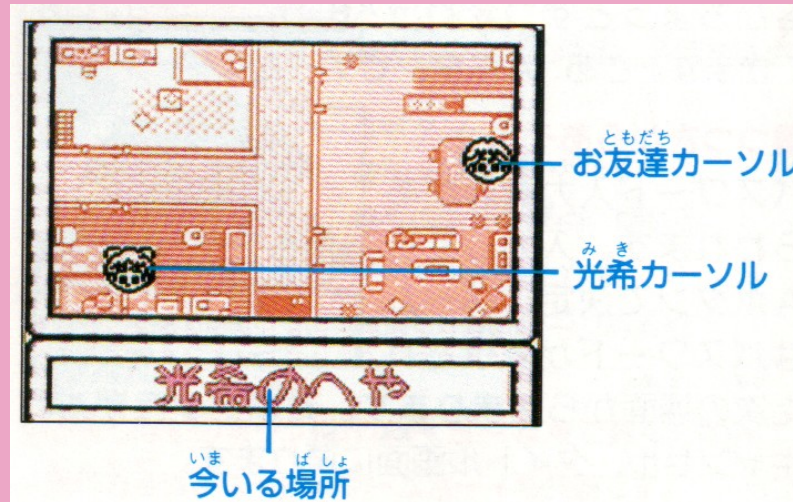

An insert password screen will appear.

After writing the password, press A to confirm and start the game.

Press B to cancel and return to the title screen.

Map Screen

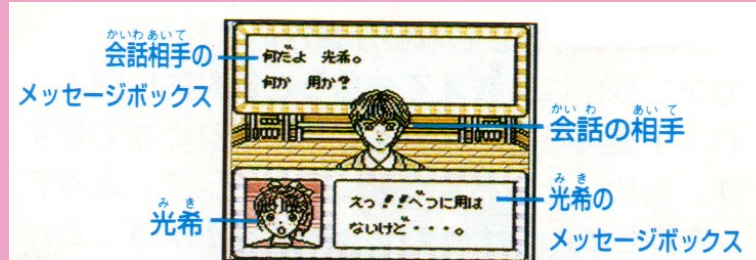

Make Miki move, talk or investigate. You can press A to move where there is a person to speak with, to enter a building, to go to the entrance, etc. Also there are voice memos somewhere in the map, with fragments of a word/sentence, collect them all and you will complete the useful word/sentence in-game.

Map screen explanation: friend cursor pointer / Miki cursor pointer / current location

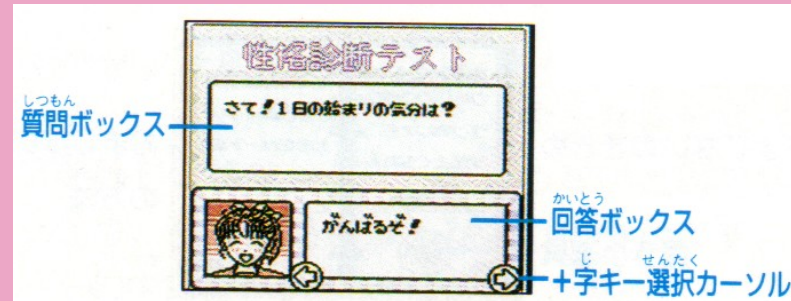

Dialogue – Psychology Screen

Continue the dialogue with A button, when the robot cursor appear on the screen press A.

Dialogue screen explanation: Partner dialogue box / Miki / partner / Miki dialogue box

There are various psychological tests in-game: personality assessment, compatibility test...
Read the answers in the box carefully.

Psychological test screen: question box / answer box / D-pad selection cursor

(*) In the dialogue screen there are cases when you have to answer too.

Notebook Screen

If you press B inside the game, the notebook appears.

You can check in the first (left) page the voice memos caught in-game

The charms will be copied down as soon as you hear them. Once you have learned a charm you receive the items to make it.

You can make a charm only once. To do it, go to the page of the charm you want to make and Press the A button.

If it goes well you will get a O

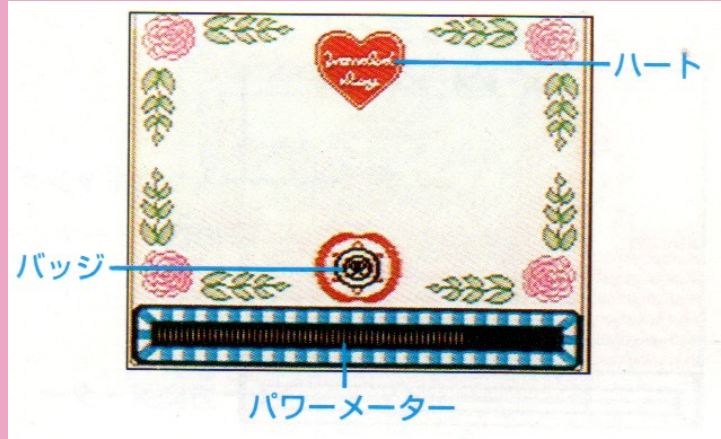

If it goes wrong you will get a X

The story will change according to the results of the charms.

Notebook screen (charm time): charm's effect / items used / charm instructions/method

Reconciliation charm

Flip the badge/coin if you make it stop in the heart, you will reconcile with the person you fought.

heart / badge / power meter

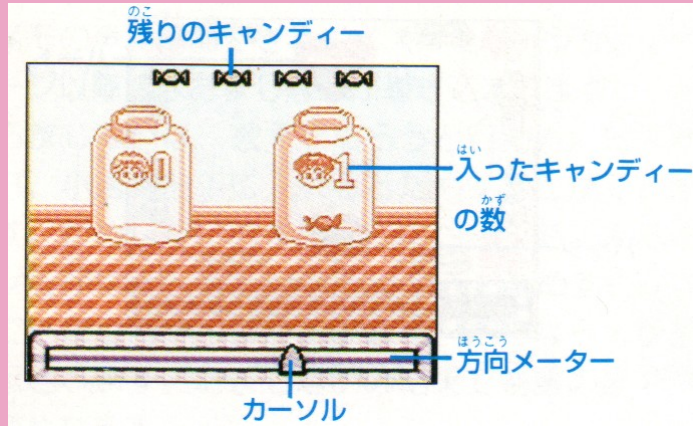

A button: power meter star/stop

Press the START button and the power meter will raise.

When the power meter is in the place you want it to be stopped flip the badge pressing the A button. To be successful the badge must fall in the heart, if the power is not enough or if it is too powerful, flip it again.

Cherry-picking charm

Is the charm about putting a bin for each boy and count the candies that go in, to predict your lover.

Candies left / counter for candies that went in / direction-orientation meter-apuntator cursor/pointer

A Button: stop the direction-orientation meter

Push the A button to stop the cursor, and throw the candy.

If you time the candy throwing well, it will go into the bin.

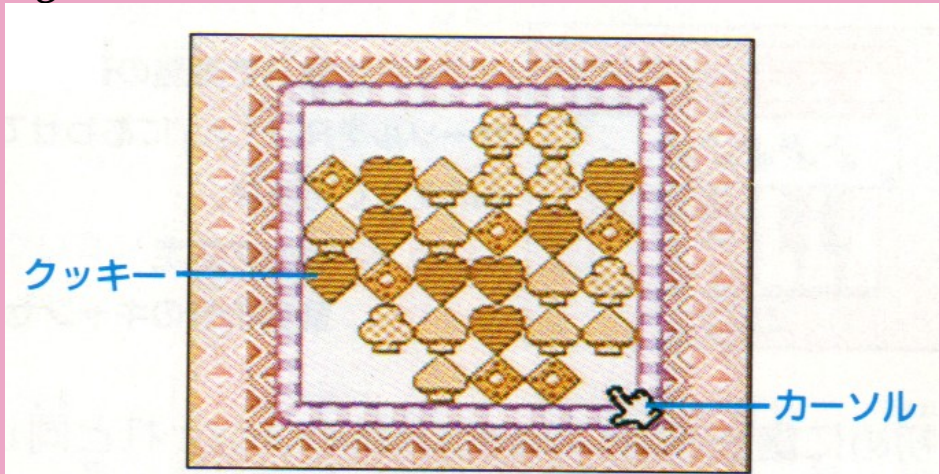

The count will show up above the bin after you finish the throw.

There are 5 candies in total.

Delish cake baking charm

It is the charm about making a sweet cake by deleting all the 4 flavor cookies two at a time.

D-pad: move cursor-pointer
A button: select cookie
B button: cancel cookie

cookie / cursor-pointer

Move the cursor, decide the cookie you want to delete, and select it with the A button (the cake's color will change).

Besides if next to the cookie you select is another of the same flavor it will delete both 2 if you press A.

Doesn't mind which direction (horizontal, vertical, oblique) it is as long as both cookies has the same flavor, the cookies will be deleted.

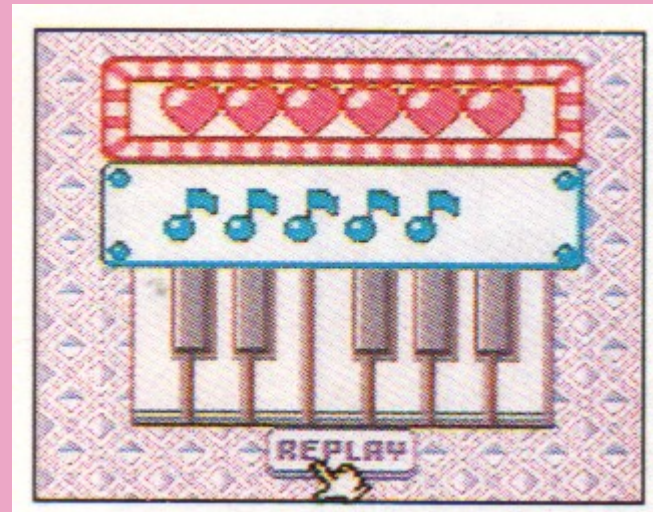

Fun party making charm

It is said to be the charm about making the party funnier by playing the piano as stated in the written tab

D-pad: use left and right to select the keyboard cursor (tile).
If you are disconcerted/confuse, push "replay" with the A button to hear the melody/tune again.

A button: select keyboard (tile)

B button: cancel previous sound selection.

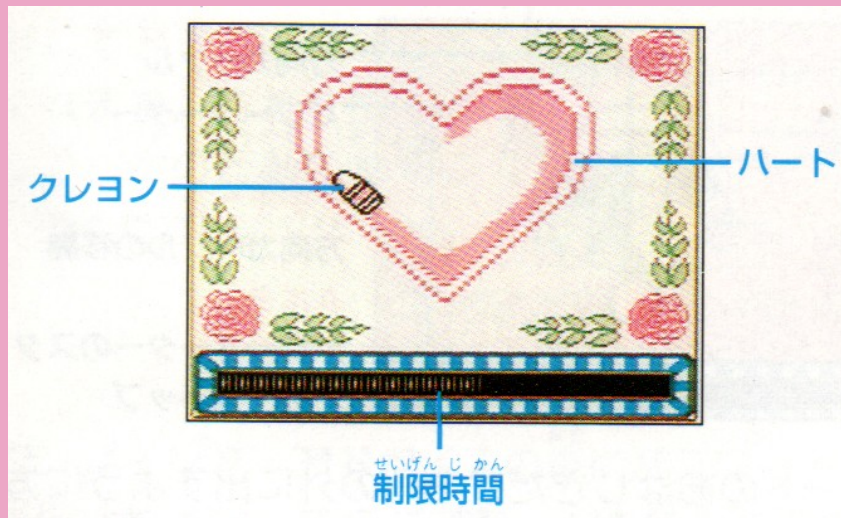

At first the 6 notes/sounds will sound like in the screen/keyboard. After that choose the same melody/tune with the A button, you can cancel the selection with the B button, but you can not cancel only the last sound/tile.

Choose 6 notes, then put the cursor on the "play" button (when you choose 6 notes, the "replay" button will become the "play" button). Then press A, that will play the melody/tune and if that matches the actual melody/tune, your wish will come true

Cheering up charm

It is said to be the charm to take away pressure to the player, if you can paint the heart with the red crayon below a certain time.

Mashing A button: paint the heart with color

crayon / heart / time restriction

If you rapidly press A, the heart will start to be painted.

If you paint the heart during the restriction time, your wish will come true.

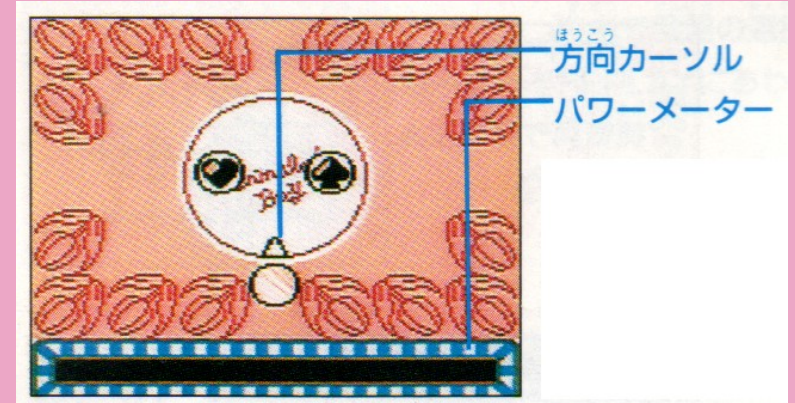

The faster you press A the faster you will paint.

Rival out-besting charm

The charm that is said to make your love rival get away/far from your lover, if you can flip the heart shape badge out of the circle.

D-pad: moves the direction cursor

A button: start/stop the power meter

Direction cursor / power meter

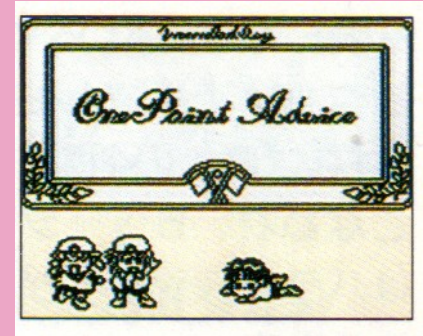

The power meter will start to raise when you press the A button, the goal is to get only the heart shape badge out of the circle.

When the power meter is in the position you want it to stop, press A button and you will be able to flip the badge.

You can flip the badge as many times as you like until you take the heart shape out of the circle, but if you flip the spades shape out, the charm will fail/finish right there.

Pro Tips

After the ending of each chapter of the story a "Pro Tip" screen will appear. Here you will receive "tips" about your decision/playing until this moment. Read this carefully, and consult it (use it) for your next movements/decisions.

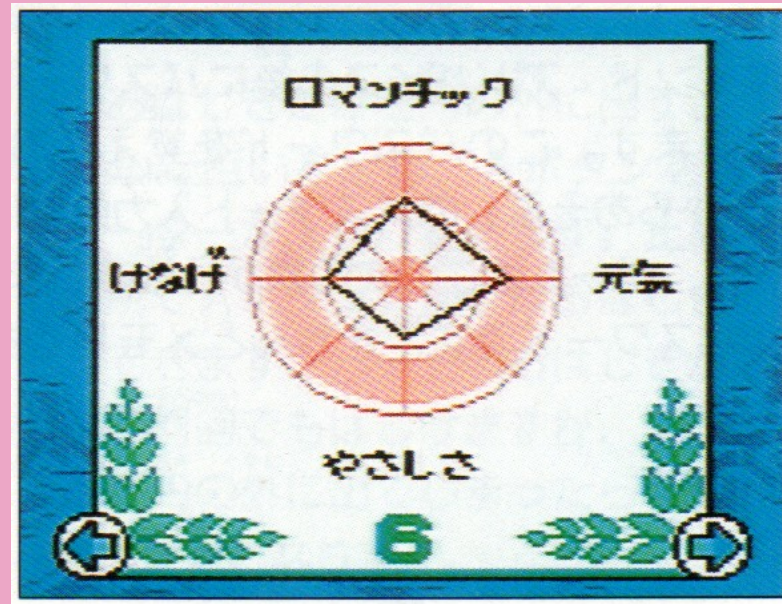

Passwords

After the "Pro Tips" screen a password will appear(show). Remember (Write down) this password.

If you use it in the password space at the "continue screen" you will start the game in the next/following chapter. It is an important password, don't forget it, write it down somewhere.
